Brief Description:

Program Highlights:

1. Introduction about Program:

MrBharat Patil spoke about importance of Indian constitution day. He further elaborated that ‘National Constitution Day, also known as SamvidhanDiwas, is celebrated in India on November 26 each year to commemorate the adoption of the Indian Constitution by the Constituent Assembly on November 26, 1949. It's a day to reflect on the values and principles that form the foundation of modern India. In order to commemorate this special day on 26th November 2025, coinciding with the culmination of the year-long celebrations themed “HamaraSamvidhan, HamaraSwabhimān”, the campaign aims to deepen public understanding of the Constitution and inspire citizens to reflect upon its core values of justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity.

2. Public Reading:

MrsPunamShete led the public reading session, which included reading the Preamble of the Constitution to remind everyone of the core principles. Tributes are paid to the framers of the Constitution, particularly Dr. B.R. Ambedkar. National Constitution Day is a time for all Indians to revisit the foundational document that underpins the country's democracy and to celebrate the values that unite the nation. reading the Preamble National Anthem of India, "Jana GanaMana" was sang . This anthem instills a sense of pride and unity among all participants

3. Principal’s Address:

Respected Principal Sir spoke that The Constitution of India is not just a legal document; it is the very soul of our nation. It embodies the vision, values, and dreams of our founding fathers, particularly Dr. B.R. Ambedkar, the principal architect of our Constitution. It enshrines the principles of justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity, which form the bedrock of our democracy. Justice ensures that every citizen, regardless of their background, has access to fairness and equality under the law. Liberty guarantees the freedom to think, express, and act according to one's beliefs and choices, within the bounds of respect for others' rights. Equality stands against discrimination of any form and promotes equal opportunities for all. And fraternity fosters a sense of brotherhood among all citizens, encouraging unity and solidarity in our diverse society.

4. Participation and Presence:

Faculty members and staff of Vasantidevi Patil Institute of Pharmacy and Yashwant International English Academy, Kodoli attended the event.

5. Vote of Thanks:
